PANTHERS SHORTS

C COMMUNITY

Nominees	Why
Kayliegh Kentala	Helps out others in a kind, generous way without being asked everyday. Nominated by: Jordan Mathews
Jacob Old	Jacob is a driving force for deep, insightful conversation in the classroom. He helps create a sense of community in the class by getting people talking about pertinent topics and he will play both sides of an argument to support a classmate who is struggling to articulate their point. I really appreciate his quick wit and willingness to contribute to our class discussions in a positive and constructive manner. Nominated by: Mrs. McCarty
Isaiah Guardado	Isaiah adds so much to the daily discussions in my class with his honest and thoughtful responses. Isaiah regularly breaks the ice when students are asked to volunteer their answers to the questions I have them think and write about. This gives other students more confidence in themselves to join the discussion. His effort, ability, and overall academic engagement are exceptional. Nominated by: Mr. Chew

H HONOR

Nominees	Why
Christina Arevalo	Christina found someone's phone and brought it in to me to be returned. Nominated by: Mr. Asnault
Olivia Nelson	Olivia found a phone in the bathroom and brought it into the office to be returned to the owner. Nominated by: Angela Gore
Krishan Lal	Krishan is kind and considerate to students as well as staff. Acts with integrity and respect at all times. Nominated by: Danielle Lopez

S SCHOLAR

Nominees	Why
Aylin Mancilla-Campos	Aylin has shown great improvement in Career Planning. Her attendance has increased and she has put forth extra effort in completing late assignments. I admire her tenacity and positive attitude. Keep up the good work! Nominated by: Kari Watts
Quintin Shaddox	Quintin has worked very hard in each of his classes this year to maintain his grades. Quintin recently took his unit math test and achieved one of the highest scores in his class. Nominated by Mrs. Merritt-Cudney
Jessica Hohberg	Jessica has shown courage and ambition in creating her resume and preparing for her interview. Getting a job is a big step for her and I congratulate her on her personal growth and responsibility! Nominated by: Marissa Alvistur
